

IMPROVEMENT OF COURT-ST. IS APPROVED

Council Proceeds With Legislation For Issuance of Hospital Bonds.

An ordinance for the improving of South Court-st from the railroads south to the corporation line of the city was passed by council at its regular meeting Wednesday evening. This improvement will be under the supervision of the director of highways. The part of S. Court-st which needs improving is known as Inter-County Highway No. 5 and the distance which will be improved is about 2825 feet.

Councilman Baker then put before council the proposed improvement of the Smith ditch. He believed this ditch should be taken care of before the paving of Court-st. This ditch runs through the Smith property at the extreme south end of Court-st and has caused the city a great deal of money to clean it out every year. The ditch carries the industrial waste from the canning factories and some expressed the belief that residents of the south end had tapped their sewers into this open ditch. The ditch is a county ditch and was excavated about 50 years ago. L. E. Miller, service director, reported to council he would make a thorough investigation of the ditch and report to council at its next meeting.

WANTS SAFETY FIRST
Councilman Marion then asked that council do something to check accidents at the Main and High-sts crossings, on the west side. Several deaths have resulted from accidents at these crossings, one last Saturday when Robert Burns of the Westfall pike was killed by a passenger train which struck his auto.
Marion believed that swinging lights or a watchman should be set at the crossings. The matter was referred to the committee on roads and franchises.

The annual report from the fire department was read and believed and the report was praised by this group. The loss in 1928 was far below the losses for many years. Councilman Marion also said that council should help keep these losses at a minimum by purchasing the equipment needed by the fire department at the present time.

Council hopes to take care of the needs of the fire department as soon as possible but it seems there are no funds at the present time for the improvements on the fire truck and the purchase of new equipment.

BOND ORDINANCE READ Since council plans the issue of $75,000 worth of bonds for the construction of a municipal hospital, $66,000 of which is to be used for the construction of the building, $4,000 for the purchase of a site, and $5,000 for the equipping of the hospital, a resolution requesting the city auditor to furnish a certificate of the life and improvement of the bonds was passed by council.

The ordinance for the issuance of $75,000 in notes in pursuance of the second time before council.
A report of City Engineer J.
Sweetman was read believing the size of the lot for land belonging to the city which it expects to purchase for the site. The tract contains 4.16 acres of land.

SICK FUNDS NEEDED
C. M. Clay, safety director, asked council for more money for the poor fund. He stated that due to the large amount of sickness in the city he needed more money for the poor. This matter was referred to the finance committee.

The mayor reported to council that his fines, licenses, and fees for the month of December totaled $70.70.

A petition signed by a number of south side citizens asking that council consider the construction of a sanitary sewer from the intersection of Pickaway and Lorain-sts east to the Winor Canning Co. and from the intersection of Logan and Washington-st to Town-st was read before council. Councilman Baker also reported to council that persons living on Scioto-st north of High-st had no sanitary sewer and asked that both of these petitions be referred to the service committee.

LIQUOR IS BLAMED IN EMBEZZLEMENT

PAINEVILLE, O., Jan. 3.—Alleged to have embezzled more than $10,000 from the Painesville branch of the Cleveland Trust Co., Charles S. Butler, 42, teller in the bank, was held in the Lake-co jail here today.

The arrest was made late last night by Russell V. Elecker, head of the Cleveland office of the Pinkerton Detective Agency.
John T. Shibley, head of the
Trust Co., accompanied the Pinkerton detective. When asked what he had done with the money, according to Elecker and Shibley, Butler replied that he had spent most of it "for good in or-

Pilot Dares Arctic Blasts With Serum For Stricken Post

EDMONTON, ALTA., Canada, Jan. 3.—In answer to a plea from the vast reaches of the Arctic to save a life placed in jeopardy through the mounds and ravages of diphtheria, Captain Wilfred ("Wop") May, intrepid Edmonton aviator and noted air force ace during the World War, was flying to Little Red River today with 200,000 units of anti-toxin.

One man is already dead, another is dying and the serum is urgently needed to prevent a spread of the disease at the post, which is 50 miles north of Fort Vermillion and about 800 miles from Edmonton in a direct line.

"Captain May" was to leave Mc-Clennan this morning in his commercial plane on the last leg of the race against death. He is expected to reach his destination by noon today. The plane took off from the Edmonton and Northern Alberta Aero Club flying field at 12 45 p. m., yesterday and arrived at McClennan at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

PARALYSIS IS DEATH CAUSE

Charles E. White Dies Wednesday Evening At Home of Son

Charles E. White, 72, died at the home of his son, Jess White, near Clarkburg, Wednesday evening about 6 o'clock. Death was due to a paralytic stroke.

The deceased was the son of John and Sally White, and was born near Gallipolis. He is survived by seven children, two having preceded him in death.

The children are Hilbert of Delaware-co; Jess, of near Clarkburg; Ira, near Gallipolis; Mrs. Ossie Bowen, of Gallipolis; Mrs.
Laura Barhus, of Clarkburg; Rose White, of Gallipolis and Mrs. Pearl Large of Clarkburg.

Funeral services were held at the home at 2 p. m., Thursday with Rev. Miller officiating. Burial was at Mount Chapel, Ross-co.
The services were in charge of Metzger and Fisher of Williamsport.

MUCH LIVESTOCK IS SHIPPED FROM HERE

Harry J. Briggs, livestock manager of the Pickaway-co Livestock Co-operative Association, was busy Thursday loading cattle and hogs for shipment from Derby, Ashville and Adelphi.

The livestock report for the month of December shows that 57,000 head of livestock was shipped through the local organization.
The net receipts for the livestock were $122,281.67.

In the shipment 3670 head of hogs, 603 head of cattle, 100 calves and 158 sheep were sent through this fast growing organization to the markets.

TEX IS IMPROVING

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 3.— Tex Rickard's condition was good today after a "fair night," according to authorities at the Albion hospital, where he is recuperating from an operation for ap-

Rough and Tough Ohioan Beats Up Washington Cop

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Carl Lassiter, a uniformed traffic officer, nursed a headache today while his mates searched for "George Moore," admittedly a tough citizen and supposedly from Ohio.

It happened this way:
Lassiter was directing traffic last night at one of the busiest corners in the Capital, Ninth and F-sts, a small coupe came alongside and the driver asked for directions. The car bore Ohio tags or 1928, which expired Dec. 31.
The conscientious officer decided to take the tourist to the station house for driving with dead tags.

As he got into the car, a gun
with his right, and kidnapped him right out of the heart of the city.
He drove to the outskirts of the district, compelled the officer to get out, beat him up and left him lying on the cold, cold ground, after firing a couple of shots just to show he meant business.

Lassiter was knocked out. He later recovered and was taken to the hospital while the rough, tough visitor to the city went on about his affairs. The officer reported he thought the number on the car was Ohio—E47280—1928.

S. A. FACTIONS SEEK CONTROL

Scenes Over Successor To General Booth.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Behind the scenes, a conflict is under way today for control of the executive and administrative machinery of the Salvation Army. The two opposing factions will come to open grips when the 64 members of the High Council meet at Sunbury-on-Thames next Tuesday to debate future leadership and changes in the army's constitution.

One faction wants Commander Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation army in America, to succeed her brother, Gen. Bramwell Booth, as the supreme head.
Another faction is supporting Commissioner Higgins, chief of the general staff.

Gen. Bramwell Booth, ill for months, has been unable to attend to the affairs of his post. It is generally believed that a successor will be elected next week. The general is 74 years old. He rose to supreme command upon the death of his father, General William Booth, in 1912.

In a statement to International News Service Commander Evangeline Booth's secretary emphatically denied that Evangeline had ever said she was assured of her brother's removal next week. The secretary added:

"It is true, however, that the commander thinks the general's health makes it imperative the command be given to some one else. The fitness of the general will be voted upon when the high

The condition of Lloyd Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones of W. Mount-st remains about the same. He is seriously ill with influenza.

Winds Blow Through Ragged Clothes

There is a hobo camp situated and encouraged in the very heart of Circleville. As darkness comes,
the hoboes gather in and stand
and then roll up their coats for a pillow and stretch out on a wooden bench for a real night's sleep.

color or creed of hoboes and they are never asked to come again after they have spent one night.
Many interesting tales are unfolded by these men. Perhaps some of them have met in different circumstances, or may be fugitives of the law. Perhaps this time next year some of them may be prosperous citizens in another town or filling a shallow grave in a Potter's field.

The camp itself is located quite close to the police headquarters and in fact is just across the hall from the city prison. Chief of Police Warner and perhaps Officer McCready are on the receiving line at these hobo camp parties which are all night affairs. The camp is a great low ceilinged room in the city building heated by a gas stove, and indifferently lighted by a lone fly speckled light bulb.

The hobo guests gather each night at dark, usually about 25 of them. Some of them have to be

Fifteen Billion Dollar Railroad
In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Eyes
of the railroad and financial world turned to the supreme court today as it tackled the so-called "fifteen billion dollar valuation case" the outcome of which may determine the ultimate value for rate-making purposes of all American railroads. The argument began today.

The small railroads operating 14
miles of main line track in St.
Louis and suburbs furnished the basis for an attack upon the Interstate Commerce Commission's theory of valuation and rate-making and the recapture clause of the Esch-Cummins law of 1920.

ARMY OF COUNSEL
These railroads, the St. Louis and O'Fallon and the Manufacturers, owned chiefly by the Adolphus Busch estate, were represented by widely-known counsel and the government called as special counsel George W. Wickersham, ex-attorney general and Walter L.
Fisher of Chicago, to aid the attorney-general's office and the commerce commission.

The argument was to be opened by Frederick H. Wood for the railroads. With him were Robert H. Kelley, Leslie Craven, Daniel
N. Kirby with Charles Nagel, ex-secretary of commerce appearing as
"of counsel." The Great Northern railroad was permitted to file a brief as a friend of the case as was Donald Richberg, representing the viewpoint of the
"progressive bloc" of the senate.

Attracted by some characterizations of the case as "the greatest law in history" a crowd of spectators appeared at the court, unaware, perhaps, that the argument was to be devoted chiefly to highly technical and intricate legal questions.

RATES INVOLVED
The value of all American railroads as estimated at the time of the Esch-Cummins act was $18-$20,000,000, according to the commerce commission brief. Some experts have estimated that this sum would be increased to $40-$60,000,000 under the railroads' theory of valuation. Upwards of a billion dollars a year in freight rates might depend upon the total valuation, experts say, since the Esch-Cummins act contemplates that rates shall be fixed to yield the railroads a fair return on their investment.

Neither side in the case, according to the briefs, presents an exact formula to be followed in valuation. The railroad contention appeared to be that the greatest weight should be given to the cost of reproducing the railroads at the present time, which would give them the advantage of the general rise in prices.

The government attitude, as given to the court, is that many elements enter into valuation for rate-making purposes, including the original cost of the railroads, their present value and their earning power.

ter, Estel, and Mrs. Kate Reichelder, 127 Thursday afternoon

ANTWERP, BELGIUM, Jan. 3.
"We are going to the Belgium Congo in the hope of starting a new life far from curious eyes."

With these parting words, Princess Victoria of Schaumburg-Lip-pe, 63-year-old sister of the former Kaiser of Germany and Alexander Zubkoff, her 28-year-old husband, sailed today aboard the liner Anversville.

It is understood that Zubkoff has obtained a position with a business house on Congo.

The marriage of the middle-aged Prussian princess: to the Russian exile in November, 1927, created comment because of the disparity in their ages. Later Zubkoff was ordered out of Germany by the police. He and his bride have been residing in Bel-

TED'S CHAUFFEUR IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Ted Lewis' chauffeur, John Smith, of New York City, who has been ill for two weeks at the
Grant hospital, Columbus, Thursday afternoon. He has been under the care of Dr. O. H. Dunton and day and night nurses since his illness which developed into pneumonia from influenza.

This is one of the cases where a Circleville hospital is a dire necessity. Although Smith has been Mr. Lewis' chauffeur for two years and has helped in a great many other ways around the theater, his family's name and address had never been discussed. Now Mr.
Lewis is frantically telephoning New York trying to locate the boy's parents. He also called Circleville five times Wednesday
removal to the hospital.

There is something about his condition that makes it impossible to throw off the poison of the pneumonia.

PRISONER TAKEN TO VET'S BUREAU

Sheriff Frank Davis was in Cincinnati Thursday night. Aug.
Floyd, formerly of Circleville, who has been held at the city jail for trial on two charges of kidnaping theft of motor vehicles. He was indicted by the October grand jury.

Floyd was taken to Cincinnati to the veteran bureau and will probably be taken to the Chillicothe veterans' hospital.

Prohibition Enforcers Close
Buckley Charges.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 3.—An examination of the Ohio state treasury was asked today by State Treasurer Bert B. Buckley.

The official's request was presented to State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy, who promptly informed Buckley that the requested examination would be made.

the Jackson Brewing Co., Cincinnati, was revoked on Dec. 5, last, it was learned here today. No announcement of the revoking was made public at that time. The action came to light as an aftermath of the federal indictment returned Monday against Bert B.
Buckley, state treasurer, and two Cincinnati men.

The Jackson Brewing Company's
permit was for the manufacture of more than one half of one percent alcoholic content beer, for certain legal distribution. Joseph Sperber, brewmaster, indicted with Buckley and John Schinner, Cincinnati attorney, was an employee of the Jackson Brewing Company.
This company was the only brewery named outright in the indictments.

Buckley and his alleged fellow conspirators named in the indictment, along with many other persons indicted on various charges by the federal grand jury last month, will be arraigned before Judge Benson W. Hough of the federal court here Saturday.

That he would not resign the state treasurer's position was the purpose of a statement issued by Buckley late yesterday from his home at Dayton. While refusing to see newspaper men, it was learned that he will name his counsel sometime today.

MADRID, Jan. 3.—The Spanish cruiser Extremadura, the gunboat Canalejas and the destroyer Alvaro departed today to search for the missing bomber plane. The military flying base, which became lost after leaving Alcazar, on Monday for Morocco, Africa, with three occupants.

Those on board were Commander Carlos de la Torre and a mechanic named Martinez.
Search of the Spanish and Moroccan coasts so far has revealed no trace of the plane.

Week, Is Now Believed
To Be Dead.

WOOSTER, Jan. 3.—Investigation of the week-old mystery of the disappearance of Melvin Horst, four, at Orrville, shifted here today with the lodging of five persons in the Wayne-co jail, all charged with child stealing.
They are Elias Arnold, 55, his two sons, William, 30, of Akron, and Arthur, 25, his daughter, Mrs.
Dorothy McHenry, 28, and her husband, Bascom McHenry.

These persons are being held in default of $10,000 bail for grand jury action, having been bound over last night by Mayor A. U.
Weygant of Orrville.

GRUDGE BLAMED
Grand jury action will be based on the theory that "The Arnolds harbored a grudge against Marshal Roy Horst because of his persistent prosecution of bootleggers" and that "they stole Melvin believing him to be the marshal's son," according to Prosecuting Attorney Walter J. Mougey.

Prosecutor Mougey stated today that it is his belief that Melvin is dead. He bases the theory on the fact that Melvin is a nephew of Marshal Horst instead of his son and that if the lad had been alive the alleged kidnappers would have returned him after learning of their mistake.

Warrants charging child stealing were issued on the basis of the fact that evidence indicated Melvin was last seen in the home of the elder Arnold. Prosecutor Mougey declared. The five suspects were grilled for hours without an incriminating admission gained, it was said.

REPORTERS IN FIGHT

ORVILLE, Jan. 3.—As the aftermath of a reported scuffle between two newspaper reporters and Sheriff Jacot and a deputy here last night, the newspapers announced today they would file assault and battery charges against the officers.

Walter Coyle and Clyde Mason, of the Akron Times-Tress, are the reporters involved. Sheriff Jacot and Deputy Lee Pontius refused last night, according to the report, to give certain information to a group of newspapermen assigned here to cover the Melvin Horst case.

An argument resulted and Mason charges that Deputy Pontius struck him with a blackjack and pushed Coyle. Sheriff Jacot, it is alleged, drew his pistol.

Army Craft On Third Day of
Its Refueling Endurance Flight On Coast.

METROPOLITAN AIRPORT,
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 3.—Leaving in her wake a new American record for sustained flight while refueling, the giant army monoplane,
"Question Mark," roared through sunny skies above southern California today on its third day in the air. It has already been aloft approximately 49 hours at 8:15
a. m.

While the great gold and brown plane was maintaining its attack on the world's air record, another Question Mark arose in the minds of army officers with reports of a falling barometer and changing weather conditions at San Diego.

So dense was the fog above the southern city that the big test plane failed to reach Rockwell field during the night and doubt was expressed whether contact with the southern end of the course could be established again before this

PILOT WILL MAKE HIS HOME IN CITY

H. S. Stevens, formerly of Columbus, a salesman for the Standard Oil Co., and an enthusiast on aviation is moving to Circleville to become the salesman in this district. Besides being able to sell any kind of oil and gas, Stevens has a pilot's license and has been connected with air circles in Columbus and other places for some time.

Due to the increase in the business of this company during the past year it has been found necessary to place a salesman in this territory to assist J. M. Thomas, who is now the agent for the company.

Hospital Bonds.

council at its regular meeting Wednesday evening. This improvement will be under the su-
and the distance which will be improved is about 2825 feet.

Councilman Baker then put before council the proposed improvment of the Smith ditch. He be-
about 50 years ago. L. E. Miller, service director, reported to coun-
to council at its next meeting.

crossings, one last Saturday
enger train which struck his auto.
kept at the crossings. The matter was referred to the committee on
roads and franchises.

of Talmor Wise was read before council and the report was highly praised by this group. The
losses for many years. Council-
equipment needed by the fire department at the present time.

Since council plans the issuance of $75,000 worth of bonds for the construction of a municipal hospital, $66,000 of which is

of the issuance of bonds was read for the second time before council.

A report of City Engineer J.
fore council giving the size of the lot of land belonging to the city sisters which it expects to

C. M. Clay, safety director, asked
referred to the finance committee.

ed $70.70.

Logan-sts east to the Winorr
st to Town-st was read before
st had no sanitary sewer and asked

LIQUOR IS BLAMED IN EMBEZZLEMENT

PAINESVILLE, O., Jan. 3.—Al-
of the Cleveland Trust Co., Charles S. Butler, 42, teller in the bank, was held in the Lake-co jail here today.

night by Russell V. Bleecker, head
kerton Detective Agency.

what he had done with the money, according to Bleecker and Shibley, Butler replied that he had spent most of it "for good liquor."

Lassiter, a uniformed traffic of-
while his mates searched for
from Ohio.

It happened this way:
of 1928, which expired Dec. 31.
house for driving with dead tags.

right out of the heart of the city.
show he meant business.

Scenes Over Successor To General Booth.

future leadership and changes in
the army's constitution.

well Booth, as the supreme head.
missioner Higgins, chief of the general staff.

Gen. Bramwell Booth, ill for
to supreme command upon the
liam Booth, in 1912.

News Service Commander Evan-
geline Booth's secretary emphati-
secretary added:

The condition of Lloyd Jones,
son of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones of W. Mound-st remains about the
fluenza.

City's Hobo Camp Popular as Winter Winds Blow Through Ragged Clothes

and encouraged in the very heart
en bench for a real night's sleep.

after they have spent one night.
Many interesting tales are unfolded by these men. Perhaps some of them have met in different circum-
law. Perhaps this time next year
a shallow grave in a Potter's field.

In Washington.

day.

miles of main line track in St.
basis for an attack upon the In-

ARRAY OF COUNSEL

These railroads, the St. Louis
turers, owned chiefly by the Adol-
counsel George W. Wickersham, ex-attorney general and Walter L.
Fisher of Chicago, to aid the at-
commerce commission.

The argument was to be opened by Frederick H. Wood for the
railroads. With him were Robert
H. Kelley, Leslie Craven, Daniel
N. Kirby with Charles Nagel, ex-
Northern railroad was permitted to file a brief as a friend of the court as was Donald Richberg,
"progressive bloc" of the senate.

Attracted by some characteriza-
law in history" a crowd of spectators appeared at the court, un-
was to be devoted chiefly to high-
questions.

900,000,000, according to the com-
theory of valuation. Upwards of
Esch-Cummins act contemplates
investment.

ing to the briefs, presents an exact formula to be followed in val-
appeared to be that greatest
rise in prices.

the original cost of the railroads,
ing power.

Mrs. William Leist and daughter, Estle, and Mrs. Kate Reichel-derfer, left Thursday afternoon for Hudson, Ind., to attend the fu-

"We are going to the Belgium

cess Victoria of Schaumburg-Lip-
pe, 63-year-old sister of the former Kaiser of Germany and Alex-
husband, sailed today aboard the
liner Anversville.

It is understood that Zubkoff
business house on Congo.

Russian exile in November, 1927,
disparity in their ages. Later

Grant hospital, Columbus, Thurs-
monia from influenza.

Circleville hospital is a dire necessity. Although Smith has been
Mr. Lewis' chauffeur for two years
other ways around the theater,
never been discussed. Now Mr.
New York trying to locate the
boy's parents. He also called Cir-
removal to the hospital.

There is something about his
pneumonia.

cinnati Thursday with Allen Floyd, formerly of Tarlton who is being held at the county jail for trial on two charges of the alleged
jury.

Floyd was taken to Cincinnati to the veteran bureau and will prob-
veterans' hospital.

To Be Dead.

tion of the week-old mystery of the disappearance of Melvin Horst, four, at Orrville, shifted
all charged with child stealing.
They are Elias Arnold, 55, his
two sons, William, 30, of Akron,
and Arthur, 25, his daughter, Mrs.
Dorothy McHenry, 28, and her husband, Bascom McHenry.

jury action, having been bound
Weygandt of Orrville.

Grand jury action will be based on the theory that "The Arnolds
harbored a grudge against Marshal Roy Horst because of his persistent prosecution of bootleg-
torney Walter J. Mougey.

day that it is his belief that Melvin is dead. He bases the theory on the fact that Melvin is a nephew of Marshal Horst instead of his son and that if he had been alive the alleged kidnapers would have returned him after learning of their mistake.

of the elder Arnold. Prosecutor
gained, it was said.

termath of a reported scuffle be-
here last night, the newspapermen
against the officers.

son, of the Akron Times-Press,
iff Jacot and Deputy Lee Pontius
the report, to give certain information to a group of newspaper-
men assigned here to cover the Melvin Horst case.

An argument resulted and Ma-
alleged, drew his pistol.

Flight On Coast.

METROPOLITAN AIRPORT,
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 3.—Leaving
cord for sustained flight while re-
fueling, the giant army monoplane,
a. m.

weather conditions at San Diego.

southern city that the big test

H. S. Stevens, formerly of Columbus, a salesman for the Standard Oil Co., and an enthusiast on aviation, is moving to Circleville
district. Besides being able to sell any kind of oil and gas, Stevens has a pilot's license and has been connected with air circles in
some time.

Due to the increase in the business of this company during the past year, it has been found necessary to place a salesman in this
who is now the agent for the company.

Buckley Charges.

(BULLETIN.)

examination of the Ohio state treasury was asked to-
B. Buckley.

The official's request was
promptly informed Buckley
tion would be made.

the Jackson Brewing Co., Cincinnati, was revoked on Dec. 5, last,
action came to light as an after-
turned Monday against Bert B.
Buckley, state treasurer, and two Cincinnati men.

The Jackson Brewing Company's
cent alcoholic content beer, for certain local distribution. Joseph
Buckley and John Schrimper, Cin-
of the Jackson Brewing Company.
This company was the only brewery named outright in the indictments.

conspirators named in the indictment, along with many other per-
federal court here Saturday.

That he would not resign the state treasurer's post was the purport of a statement issued by Buckley late yesterday from his
counsel sometime today.

cruiser Extremadura, the gunboat Canalejas and the destroyer Aliso
missing Dornier "Whale" military flying boat which became lost after leaving Alcazares on Monday for Melilla, Africa, with three occupants.

Those on board were Commander Caula, pilot, Capt. Tauler and a mechanic named Martinez.
Search of the Spanish and Moroccan coasts so far has revealed no trace of the plane.

Pickaway Cage Teams Resume Play Friday

LOCAL OUTFIT WILL BATTLE Y DAY SCHOOL

Interesting Preliminary Game Scheduled Here—County Fives To Clash.

After a two weeks' vacation the Pickaway-co cage teams will again swing into action Friday evening.

The C. H. S. team will meet the Columbus Day Y school Friday evening in the local gym. The girls' team is out of luck this week as they have an open date and will have another vacation from the hardwood court. Coach Guthrie is making predictions on this battle. Last Friday the local team went down to a defeat in a practice game at Greensfield. This was not a league game and the coach has been busy working in new plays to strengthen his light team. The team depends almost entirely on speed as size is lacking from the ranks.

CHURCH FIVES TO PLAY

The Emery club of the Episcopal church will furnish the preliminary scrap. This team has won three games out of four so far this season. It will meet the Cambridge Junior Class Five. The Emery club will probably come forth on the floor with the following line-up: Glitt, rf, Weffler, lf, Lape, c; White, rg, Styers, lg. Ashville this Friday evening plays Perry at Perry Ashville, in its last games, went down to a terrible defeat at the hand of Saltcreek-tw. The game was played at Tarlton on a floor that had been used the night before for a dance and it was so slippery the players had a lot of trouble standing up. The Ashville girls' team defeated Saltcreek but have met with some tough defeats so far this season.

PLAY AT TARLTON

Saltcreek-tw. victors over Ashville, play Washington-tw. on the same floor at Tarlton Friday evening and the game will probably be another slippery affair.

Muhlenberg-tw. or Darbyville have an open date this week.

Williamsport, victors over New Holland on Friday, Dec. 21, meet New Holland Friday evening in Williamsport's gym.

The Walnut-tw. team moves

Has Lowest Earned Run Average

Hats off to Arthur C. (Dazzy) Vance, and a flock of substantial banzais as well, for official hurling records of the National League show that Dazzy led the circuit's pitchers with an earned run average of 2.09, the best of his major league career. In the season just ended he hung up a record of 22 victories against 10 defeats, which is quite some pitching any way you look at it.

over to Pickaway-tw. Friday evening to fight it out.

The champions of Pickaway-co so far this season are Saltcreek. They have defeated Williamsport. Williamsport defeated Circleville, and Saltcreek has defeated Ashville so there is no question as to their hold on the championship so far.

Odd Mirage Effects

Among the mirage effects recently seen in the North sea were steamers well below the horizon appearing above it with a peculiar flicker effect similar to war-time camouflage, and that of a horse reflected upside down in the air.

Habits of Whales

Whales do not go to the bottom of the ocean. When alive they constantly rise to the surface for the purpose of breathing. When dead the body floats on the surface.

OHIO STATE BEATS SOUTHERN QUINTET

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 3.—Ohio State hung up another basket ball victory last night before the smallest crowd of the season when the University of North Carolina could get but 30 points to State's 43. Seventeen players saw action during the game for Ohio.

Harold Ervin at left, forward was the high scorer of the game. He sank seven field goals for 14 of State's 43 point total. This was the last preliminary game for Ohio before entering into the Western Conference championship play.

Men are as seldom as good as they pretend to be or as bad as they are said to be.

CLAIMS JACK IS READY TO FIGHT AGAIN

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Jack Dempsey will return to the ring, once and for the last time, in a heavyweight championship fight late next summer, it was definitely declared by Ed Frayne in today's New York American. Stating that he had positive information to the effect that the old champion had accepted terms, the author of the article then went on to say that Rickard will make an official announcement of the fact next week. He added that Rickard "already has the statement prepared for the press," and to this particular observation, I prefer to add nothing.

However, since we all are sitting around telling stories on one another, I think I'll now tell one.

FOUR MEN IN SIGHT

Jack Sharkey, whom he already has licked, Paulino Uzcudun, whom he thinks he can lick, W. L. (Young) Stribling, whom he hopes he can lick, and Tom Heeney, whom he knows he can lick.

That definitely is the program—if Jack Dempsey returns to the ring, as I was saying, nobody can go around cauterizing my abrasions for a crack like that. Tommy Loughran, the light heavyweight champion, will not be considered for a split second because Dempsey has played tag with these leaping Lenas before and he always finds that he is "It." So Loughran is out like a dead cigar.

SURVIVOR FOR JACK

The rest of the program calls, it is understood, for the Stribling-Sharkey fight at Miami Beach on Feb. 27, a meeting between Paulino and Heeney in April at the Garden, the winner to meet the Stribling-Sharkey survivor in June and the final survivor to meet Dempsey for the championship.

At the risk of becoming monotonous, I will add that all of this is predicated on the question of whether Jack Dempsey will return much sooner. The Frayne story is likely to smoke out a lot of 'possums.

According to the statistical computations the average American may expect to have occasion to enter a hospital for treatment once every twelve years, and the average head of the family pays $300 every three years for hospital service.

HEALTH TROUBLE QUICKLY ENDED BY NEW KONJOLA

For Years His Condition Resisted Every Effort For Relief—New Medicine Triumphs.

"Konjola was the first and only medicine to touch my case!" How often this expression is heard from those who have found new and glorious health in this master medicine of 32 ingredients. Read what a happy experience Mr. W. L. Wolford, 642 John street, Co. hoxton, Ohio, had with this super-remedy.

"What Konjola did in my case is little short of miraculous. For years I was a helpless victim of stomach and liver troubles. I had dizzy spells, specks before my eyes, my food did not digest, and my system was filled with poisons. A friend said 'Take Konjola, and get well.' But I had lost faith in medicines and prescriptions and treatments; all had failed me. But he insisted that I take Konjola, and I did. It was the first and only medicine that 'cured' my case; the medicine I should have had years ago. In three weeks every trouble had disappeared. I can eat anything, the dizzy spells and black specks are no more and I am a new man in health, strength and vitality. The man who called Konjola with its amazing powers, the master medicine certainly knew what he was talking about."

Whales do not go to the bottom of the ocean. When alive they must constantly rise to the surface for the purpose of breathing. When dead the body floats on the surface.

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Jack Dempsey will return to the ring, once and for the last time, in a heavyweight championship fight late next summer, it was definitely declared by Ed Frayne in today's New York American. Stating that he had positive information to the effect that the old champion had accepted terms, the author of the article then went on to say that Rickard will make an official announcement of the fact next week.

He added that Rickard "already has the statement prepared for the press," and to this particular observation, I prefer to add nothing.

If Jack Dempsey returns to the ring—and nobody can have me ruled off for that remark—he will fight only against one of the following four men:

Jack Sharkey, whom he already has licked; Paulino Uzcudun, whom he thinks he can lick; W. L. (Young) Stribling, whom he hopes he can lick, and Tom Heeney, whom he knows he can lick.

That definitely is the program—if Jack Dempsey returns to the ring, as I was saying, nobody can go around cauterizing my abrasions for a crack like that. Tommy Loughran, the light heavy-weight champion, will not be considered for a split second because Dempsey has played tag with these leaping Lenas before and he always finds that he is "It." So Loughran is out like a dead cigar.

SURVIVOR FOR JACK

The rest of the program calls, it is understood, for the Stribling-Sharkey fight at Miami Beach on Feb. 27, a meeting between Paulino and Heeney in April at the Garden, the winner to meet the Stribling-Sharkey survivor in June and the final survivor to meet Dempsey for the championship.

At the risk of becoming monotonous, I will add that all of this is predicated on the question of whether Jack Dempsey will return much sooner. The Frayne story is likely to smoke out a lot of 'possums.

One Spoonful Would Fill A Market Basket!

HERE IS a secret for the benefit of one's inner system. There is as much good in a single spoonful of plain pepsin as in a whole basket of fresh vegetables!

You have heard how modern menus fail to assist the peristaltic action so important to health. Make this up with a little syrup pepsin, and watch appetite, assimilation, and elimination pick up! It ought to improve 100% in a week, according to some doctors.

Don't give up rich foods, or go on a diet when this liquid vegetable corrector can put stomach, liver, and bowels in condition to handle anything that's eaten! Without the sign of distress, or a fear of constipation. You don't have to purge yourself to keep the digestive tract all clean and sweet. A test of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will prove this. And the test is at present free. Children are healthier and happier, and elderly people have a far easier time where this ideal combination of laxative herbs and pure pepsin is fully appreciated.

Dr. Caldwell first used this innocent means of keeping the bowels free from accumulated waste back in 1875. Today, you couldn't find a druggist without this famous prescription, all put up and directions enclosed. Try it, and you'll know why!

We Might Be Happy
Our life might be gay and happy if we would; but we eagerly seek subjects of application to render it tedious and melancholy. We pass the first years of this life in the shades of ignorance, the succeeding ones in pain and labor, the latter part in grief and remorse, and the whole in error; nor do we suffer ourselves to possess one bright day without a cloud—Petrarch.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified, creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Do You Admire Antiques?

Some people admire antiques in the home. Some homes have such valued treasures—but most antiques do not have the comforts of home furnishings.

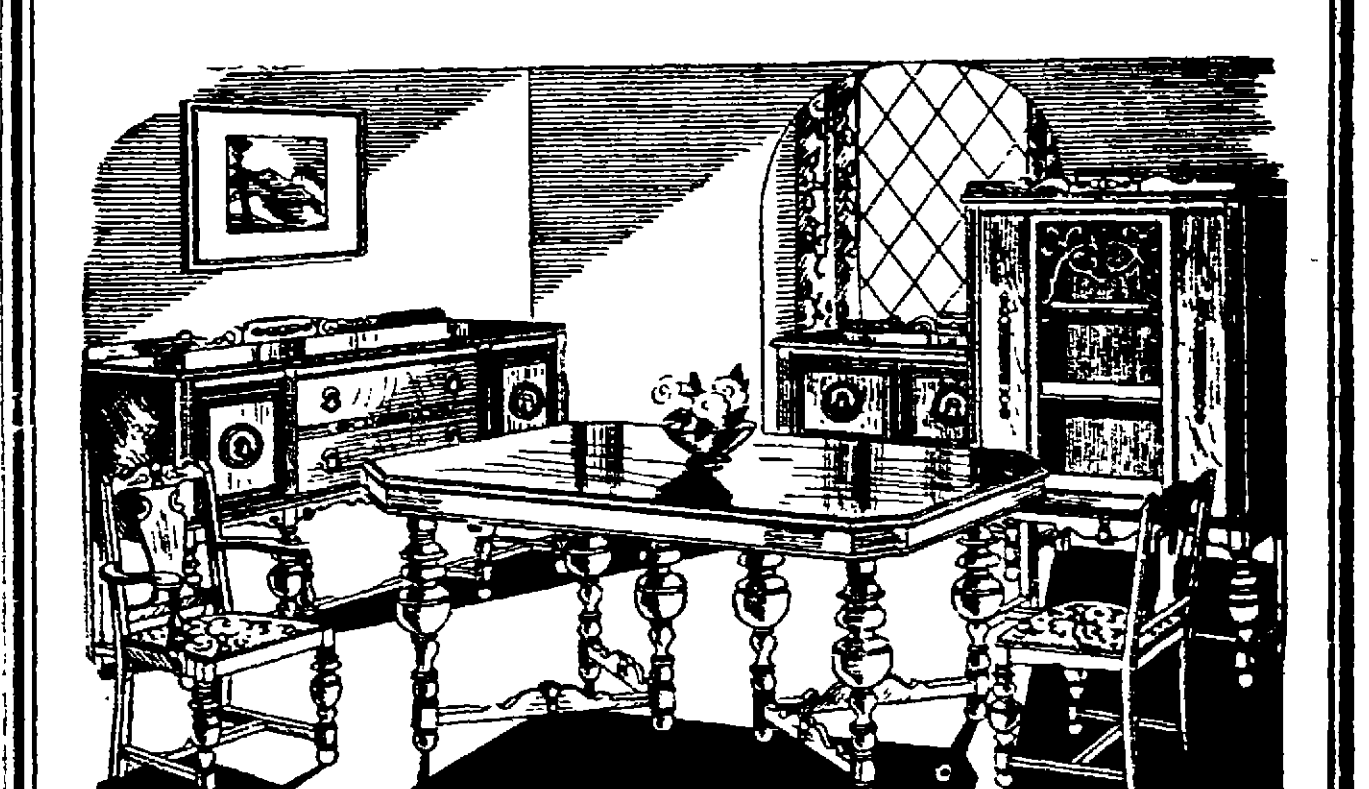

Home is the place for "comfort." A place for relaxation and restful recreation. Comfort implies the soft velvety rugs, comfortable chairs and couches, shaded lights and low tables. To have these in the home gives comfort of the body.

Furniture styles change; even as do automobiles. More color, better construction, added comfort and lower prices are embodied in the furniture of today. The man who drives a 1920 model automobile is considered out of style—and he is. The furniture that is passed from one generation to another, may be an heirloom, worthy of possession—but your home can be made more comfortable with modern furniture.

This Living Room Suite Adds to the Home.

You can bring the home up-to-date with a living room suite such as this. Carved frame, upholstered in Jacquard, with loose spring filled cushions, reversible. This is a suite that is made for many years of satisfactory service and the price represents a real value.

Does Your Dining Room Need a New Suite?

In this dining room suite we offer a truly elegant 8-piece combination walnut and gum suite, combining beauty and quality to a marked degree. It's rich color combined with its pleasing style of design is unusually attractive.

One Spoonful Would Fill A Market Basket!

HERE IS a secret for the benefit of one's inner system. There is as much good in a single spoon of plain Syrup Pepsin as in a whole basket of fresh vegetables!

You have heard how modern menus fail to assist the peristaltic action so important to health. Make this up with a little Syrup Pepsin, and watch appetite, assimilation, and elimination pick up! It ought to improve 100% in a week, according to some doctors.

Don't give up rich foods, or go on a diet when this liquid vegetable corrective can put stomach, liver, and bowels in condition to handle anything that's eaten! Without the sign of distress, or a fear of constipation. You don't have to purge yourself to keep the digestive tract all clean and sweet. A test of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will prove this. And the test is at present

Our life might be gay and happy if we would; but we eagerly seek subjects of application to render it irksome and melancholy. We pass the first years of this life in the shades of ignorance, the succeeding ones in pain and labor, the latter part in grief and remorse, and the whole in error; nor do we suffer ourselves to possess one bright day without a cloud.—Petrarch.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Do You Admire Antiques?

Furniture styles change; even as do automobiles. More color, better construction, added comfort and lower prices are embodied in the furniture of today. The man who drives a 1920 model automobile is considered out of style—and he is. The furniture that is passed from one generation to another, may be an heirloom, worthy of possession—but your home can be made more comfortable with modern furniture.

"EXCESS BAGGAGE" at the Met theater. Director James Cruze has turned out his finest example of an intensely interesting motion picture since "The Covered Wagon."

With William Haines, who also rises to new heights, Cruze has turned out a picture that has the audience alternately laughing and crying with an occasional moment in between when they feel like cheering.

Josephine Dunn as the girl does marvelous work and films beautifully. Ricardo Cortez, Kathleen Clifford, Neely Edwards, Cyril Chadwick, Greta Granstedt and the other members of the cast are all troupers and do great work with the roles allotted them.

BIBLE THOUGHT

A GREAT STORY—I will mention the loving kindness of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord bestowed on us, which he hath bestowed according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.—Isaiah 63:7.

PRAYER—O Lord with my whole heart will I praise Thee.

RED TAPE

If the new administration that takes office next March can manage to work a little common sense into the red-tape-ridden matter of naturalization it will be a good thing. A change of that kind is very badly needed.

A Kansas woman, who had supposed all her life that she was a good American citizen, recently applied for a passport so that she could make a Mediterranean tour and discovered that she is a woman without a country. Her parents brought her to this country when she was 11 months old, and she has been here ever since. A month or so after her 21st birthday, her father became a naturalized citizen.

The ordinary mortal would suppose that she would be a citizen by this time. But she isn't. Some inspired bureaucrat has ruled she is not an American.

Let's hope this red tape can be replaced by a little common sense.

THE BOULDER DAM BILL

Just because the Boulder Dam bill finally was passed by congress and signed by the president, you needn't think that the power trust which feels towards Boulder Dam as the late Wayne B. Wheeler felt towards the Distillers' association is completely hocked.

The bill, as you may recall, authorizes the construction and operation of a power plant by the government but does not compel it. The secretary of the interior, if he sees fit, may do that—or he may lease either the power or the power rights to private companies. And this second alternative would suit the power trust nearly as much as defeat of the bill in the first place would have suited it.

You might just keep your eye on it for a few months and see what happens.

SOPHISTICATION OUTDONE

New York, as everybody knows, is the home of the city slicker—the place where sophistication is 100 per cent, where all the old tricks are common knowledge and nobody can be fooled by anything. That, anyhow, is the national theory.

The other day, however, a wandering Yankee blew into New York with a stock of penknives which he had bought for two cents apiece. Daily he would board a subway train, simulate illness, and offer his knives for sale to kind-hearted dupes. And he cleared more than $100 a day, and was able to hire a valet, and when finally arrested had upwards of $40,000 in the bank.

New York may be wise and sophisticated. But the old-fashioned Yankee tuckster can still find more suckers there than anywhere else in the country.

BANDITS BRING BLESSING

The Mexican bandit, villain of countless stage and screen thrillers, who has given his country many a black eye in the past, has at last rendered it a service. He has taken a leading part in promoting civil aviation.

It was unintentional, of course. But it seems one of the chief reasons for the spread of air lines to various parts of Mexico is the roving bandit. Trains and automobiles carrying payrolls or important personage often get held up. So Mexican and foreign capitalists are taking to the air. No spurred and pistolled horseman ever yet forced an airplane to stand and deliver.

The Mexican bandit, without all the means to it, is helping his country along the path of progress.

Three Famous Storms

The "Great Storm" of 1703 is supposed to have been the most severe tempest that ever visited the British Isles and forms the subject of an interesting book by Deane, the author of "Robinson Crusoe." Nature Magazine says that the most destructive hurricane that has occurred in the West Indies, Santa's gale swept over eastern Canada with terrific force Oct. 11, 1854.

CABBAGES and KINGS

"The time has come," the Walrus said,
To talk of many things:
Of shoes—and ships—and sealing-wax—Of ices—and of many kings;
And cabbages—and kings!"

LOST ILLUSIONS

The entire south is on a boom. That's what the papers say. The lads down there they hit the ball. Full fourteen hours a day—if that's the case, if that's the case I'd rather stay away.

Below the Mason-Dixon line They're busy as can be. They work from dawn till evening shade.

In wildest industries, And that is fine, it's very fine But it's no place for me.

It's true. Reports are that the South is busy. Southern states are planning big crop acreage, southern towns are seeking larger population. One town calls itself the Chicago of the south, as if that were anything to boast of. The point is that the old south appears to be gone, we mean the old Dominion, where people sat around all day long getting ready to sit around all the following day.

And the people have gone, the people of the Old South. In their stead are go-getters from the middle west, building houses that the south should have had, and rarely did, draining the bayous, laying out golf courses, reveling in the dumbest of all spectacles—dog races. The south is indeed booming, and this fact makes it easier to remain at home.

Dancing is said to have become a lost art in Russia. In other words, after having seen the American interpretation of the Russian dances, the Russians quit.

The gasoline barons say that if the price of gas were cheaper it should constitute a grave menace. Gas at lower rates would mean that the public would wantonly waste it. Thus those noble hearted men are going to keep the price jacked up so that we won't act the fool. Their position will be appreciated by all of us for what it is worth.

A married man thinks he is better off at home—insofar as a married man is said to think of any subject. And perhaps he is. He feels safer with the women around, and why not? From his earliest infancy he has been bossed by women—by his mother, then his wife and at last, in his old age by his daughters and granddaughters.

"One of the city's most aristocratic homes" in a neighboring town was robbed one night, and thieves got chewing gum, a ham, crackers and a loaf of bread. We have always wondered what aristocrats had in their houses.

We remember Granter Gandy, who stuck around until he had reached the age of 104. Granter's sight was a bit dim, and his hearing and teeth were departing, but his mind was working in fine shape. He told us one summer afternoon that he could not remember a time in all of those 104 years that he hadn't been explaining to some woman that he washed his hands earlier. First his mother, then his wife and, at the time of relating the grievance, it was to his great, great, great-granddaughter. Man claims to be the lord of creation only when there are no women around.

One of the Goulds is running a Fourth ave tea room. Trust that family to go where the important money is to be made.

A man in police court, arrested because he had ten gallons of booze in his automobile, said he got it to put into the radiator to keep it (the radiator) from freezing. Later testimony disclosed that he drove a Franklin car. Folks who know all about automobiles will see the point in this here thing.

We own no bunk stock, and have only a casual interest in the success of our fiduciary institutions. But we do know that the man who refuses to save will some day have to go to the banker and talk into his ear in low, earnest, not to say agonized tones.

THE ROLLING SNOWBALL

Peaks of Desire

by Kane O'Day

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

JERRY DUNN, reporter, falls in love with Ann Tremaine, a wealthy debutante. He takes her to live at his boarding house, and she is attracted to Steve Harrison, a husky young mechanic of whom Jerry is jealous. Ann gets a job in a small theatre owned by Nick Pagalos, and Steve goes into the trucking business. Maizie Thompson, an ex-sweetheart of Steve's, appears on the scene. She accuses Ann of having stolen Steve from her, but Steve denies this, saying he does not love Maizie. Ann and Steve leave Maizie in Jerry's room. Ann returns and tries to soothe the girl's feelings, but to no avail. Jerry offers to take her home.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

NEW, queer feeling obsessed Ann after Jerry left the house to take Maizie Thompson home. Was it possible, she wondered, that she was jealous of the other girl? To herself, secretly, she insisted that she was not jealous. She was too broad-minded for that. Furthermore, the question of pride was involved. She could not compete with any girl—certainly not with Maizie's type—for any man's attention. Nevertheless, a resentment rankled in her bosom and finally she identified it. She resented Jerry's too easily formed friendship for Maizie.

Men were such fools! No matter how common a girl was she could, with a few feminine tricks, get through any man's shell no matter how intelligent he was. There was something inherent in masculine stupidity that blinded men to a thousand cheap artifices of the other sex. Even an ignorant creature like Maizie Thompson knew more by instinct than Jerry Dunn could ever comprehend with his alert mentality.

With an effort, she sealed the subject up in her mind and tried to think no more about it. Her reaction was to plunge more enthusiastically into the solid substance of her job. A week of heavy work followed at the theatre.

Nick Pagalos seemed to have put all thoughts of philandering from his mind and maintained a sardonic kind of geniality. "Business is getting better every week," he told her. "I guess you brought good luck to the house."

As a matter of fact Ann had been getting down to work earlier every morning, for one thing. She was addressing and mailing hundreds of circulars to prospective patrons in the neighborhood area. "There's no luck about it," she told Nick. "You're giving your customers what they want."

"THE CIRCUS" COMING

Charlie Chaplin in "The Circus" Peanuts, sawdust, pink lemonade, clowns, tigers, elephants, roaring lions, acrobats, wire-walkers and Charlie Chaplin in his brand new comedy will all be at the Cliftona theater Thursday and Friday. Written directed and produced by Charlie Chaplin. "The Circus" was two years in the making and it is the first Chaplin comedy since "The Gold Rush."

Charlie plays a wandering lad who is mixed up in a series of hilarious adventures, chases, arguments and omissions that land him in "The Circus" as a very fine fellow. Merna Kennedy with red hair and just five feet two with eyes of blue, is his leading lady. She makes her screen debut in the role. Others in the cast are Harry Crocker, Henry Bergman, Betty Morrissey and Allan Garcia.

business. A new feeling of confidence surged through her, a powerful tonic to her mind. Now, for the first time, she knew that she was actually making her way in the world—that she was a useful and necessary card in the vast machinery of humanity.

She was seeing almost nothing of Jerry during the week, as he was working late nights. For a few days Steve had appeared to avoid her.

"How about me coming around to the theatre for you tonight?" he asked her one evening at the dinner hour as she was hurrying back to work.

His manner was awkward and she perceived he was suffering some suppressed humiliation. In the poor light of the hall—but this may have been fancy—she thought he was flushing to the roots of his hair. It was hard for her to leave him as he was. "I'll have to go," she said. "I'm expecting a salary increase next Saturday night."

"You got no idea how heavy my expenses are!" Nick protested instantly. "Oh, haven't I? You forget I keep such books as are kept around here, and you're making good money. If you can't pay me what I'm worth I'll get another job."

His face became wrought with automatic, protective impatience. "Oh, all right—all right! You get a $5. raise."

She smiled at him coolly. "I get a $10. raise or I quit."

Nick clapped an agonized hand to his brow. "Are you trying to ruin me? I got expenses you never heard about."

"That's final," she assured him absently. He spread his hands in surrender. "What can I do? You know it would cost me money to break in somebody new for the job. All right. You get a $10. raise. But there's one thing you've got to understand—you're worth it or you wouldn't get it. Nobody—not even you—can talk me out of more money unless they bring it in."

Praise from Nick Pagalos stirred with a fluttering, golden sensation. When it came to money his temperament was loyal, and she knew, beyond any doubt, that she had been a real help in building the

"EXCESS BAGGAGE"
In "Excess Baggage," at the Met theater, Director James Cruze has turned out his finest example of an intensely interesting motion picture since "The Covered Wagon."

Josephine Dunn as the girl does marvelous work and films beautifully. Ricardo Cortez, Kathleen Clifford, Neely Edwards, Cyril Chadwick, Greta Granstedt and the other members of the cast are all troupers and do great work with the roles allotted them.

MOTHER IS CALLED

Musterole relieves the congestion and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. Jars & Tubes

IT ISN'T DONE!

Can you detect in the above setting the error in taste or etiquette? If not, read on —

Can you detect in the above eating the error in taste or etiquette? If not, read on —
